SHERIFF Irvin is in the country collect-THE remains of the late J. B. Taylor will be buried at Beech Grove, Mounds Junction to-day. THE board of directors of the Cairo and St. Louis railrord company meet in this city this morning at 10 o'clock. Judge Crawford, Colonel Townes and Mr. Bouton, of Jonesboro, were visible on our streets yesterday evening. THE business of the county court yesterday was unimportant. The iron

THERE will be a big flag raising at Santa Fe, on the Greeley side of the fence, on Saturday, 31st inst. Allen and Green will oratorically labor on that occasion.

Mr. Bradley's barbecue was the attraction in the third ward yesterday. It was enthusiastic. The colored people who attended it sweat and est, which in a Grant darkie is the some of enjoyment.

THE barbecue at Unity on Saturday will be a big thing in the Greeley and Brown line. The Hons. Geo. H Wall and Wm. J. Allen, and some of the smaller fry of talkers will be present on the occasion to convince the multitude that they ought to eschew the evils of Grant- Fire Company are requested to attend the

THE heat of yesterday and Monday was intense. The sun beamed down with his most scorehing rays, and umbrellaless pedestrians suffered untold miseries. Oh, for a lodge in a garden of cucumbers! Oh, for an iceberg or two at control! We faint-we faint-we are resolved to melt, thaw and resolve ourself into a dew.

THE Arabs will indulge in the luxury of engine house, we are sure every citizen o'clock. should buy a ticket, whether he goes or stays away. Patrorize the boys. They are energetic and merit the countenance and encouragement of the public.

THE cause of the late J. B. Taylor's death was exposure to the hot sun of Monday morning. He had been in the habit of carrying an umbrella in going to and from his office, but on Monday morning-the hottest morning of the seasonhe went to his father's house through the hot sun and up and down the avenues and levee without an umbrella. Congestion of the brain and death was the result.

Mz. John P. Heley returned home last Sunday, and left again for Shawneetown yesterday. He represents the Greeley feeling of Shawneetown as all that fancy pictures it-a right hearty movement in the direction of victory. Mr. Heley says he has no doubt that the Liberals and Radicals will stand fast by the Rev. T. J. Shores if he should be determined to speak | twenty-three miles. for Greeley in Shawneetown, but he does not knew what the Grant negroes would be tempted to do

Squire Shannessy has listend to our pleading tones assuring him that men being reasonable must get drunk-we hope this may not under mine our well-known reputation for sobriety-and deals as gently with a drunken man as a careful person deals with a new laid egg. Therefore it was that Chas. Clark, who was drunk, (you bet!) was fined by his honor only $1. Why should a man suffer in his purse because he is the slave of appetitea sort of human hog? Where is the correspondent who will answer us this ques-

MR. Wm. Murphy is one of those unfortunate human beings who are constantly getting out of one difficulty into another-out of the frying pan into the fire. Sometime ago he got drunk as Bacchus astride his tun-the common figure-and got into the calaboose, from which he was released Monday night. On Tuesday morning he appeared before Squire Shannessy on the charge of being drunk again, an offense against sec. 75 of Ordinance 600, and was promptly fined $1 and costs. The gentle hearted City Attorney stayed execution on condition that he, the unfortunate William would leave the city instantly. He did.

THE news of the death of the late J. B. Taylor created a profound sensation throughout the city. He was well-known to almost every man, woman and child in Cairo, and none knew him but to entertain toward him feelings of friendship. He was a good-hearted, kind young man, and date. Cairo, Ill., August 18th 1872. his remains will be followed to the grave by a host of friends who will mourn his sudden and untimely death as a sore visitation of Providence, and mingle their regrets sorrowfully with the more intense misery of his bereaved wife and children, father, mother and only surviving sister. His familiar form will be seen no more upon our streets, his cheerful voice be heard again not in life, and his manyvery many-good qualities of head and heart he lost forever to society and the world. But this is the end of all mensubmissively.

An outrageously impadent clerk had the face " to write to THE BULLETIN that he didn't like to work from 5 o'clock a.m., until 10 o'clock p.m., when it was a demonstrable fact that all the goods sold in a grocery store between half-past 7 and 10 would not pay for the gas consumed, and that he would like, if he could, to have an agreement entered into between the grocers to close half-past 7 o'clock. For this henious offense the clerk's employer discharged him! The employer ought to be somewhat ashamed of himself. He should rather have encouraged the boy to set that lance of his again and rush at other windmills; and he should not have over-

MESSRS, GOLDSTINE & ROSENWA-TER'S DRY GOODS ESTABLISH-

On visiting the above establishment, on Commercial avenue, between Eighth and Ninth streets, we found the firm busily engaged in setting in order their new addition-25 feet by 25-which makes a fine addition to their successful business, They are getting ready now to show what they can do in the way of dry goods at low prices, against the early autumn.

They are receiving New Stocks every lay, consisting in part of dress goods of the latest patterns, ready made clothing, hats, caps, domestics, etc. They have purchased and continue to purchase in the eastern market, of first hands for cash, and are, consequently, prepared to sell at the lowest possible price for the same.

Quick sales and small profits, and goods insurpassed in quality and texture. They desire to take this opportunity to return public thanks to Mr. C. Hanny for permission so kindly granted to make use of and pass through their rear premises.

MARKET REPORT.

MONDAY EVENING, AUGUST 19, 1872, The general duliness prevailing in the markets all over the country at the present time, continues unbroken here, and we can offer no encouragement to shippers. Grain continues in great abundance considering the demand. Reports from New Orleans and Memphis give dull markets, with Oats and Corn declining in prices. Flour alone seems to hold its own; this staple is held firmly and prices are looking up.

The Hay market is good for choice grades, but common is unsaleable; we do not advise correspondents to ship anything lower than good Timothy or choice mixed. Country produce is in fair demand.

The weather has been very hot; to-day has been one of the hottest of the sea-Correspondents should bear mind that our quotations represent prices for round lots from first hands, unless otherwise stated, and that in filling small orders higher prices must be paid. FLOUR .- Market firm, and prices on medium and best grades have an upward tendency; very little doing in brands below a good XX.
